MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: George V. Lauder
Director of Public Affairs

SUBJECT: Address to the Fordham University Club

1. Action Requested: None. This is background information for your visit and address to the Fordham University Club, on Wednesday, 14 November, from 5:30 - 7:45 p.m., at Headquarters building.

2. Arrangements: If your schedule permits, you are invited to attend the wine and cheese hour at 6:00 p.m. in the North Cafeteria. Members of my staff, CIA Fordham alumni and I will be on hand to mingle with the group during the wine and cheese hour and will also attend the briefings in order to help with logistical arrangements and to answer any questions. A display of the new headquarters building will also be set up in the cafeteria.

The meeting begins at 6:40 p.m. in the auditorium. Your briefing begins at 6:45 p.m. I will open the meeting and introduce you. Mr. Richard Appert who is the Presiding Officer for the Club may also make a few administrative comments. Suggested format for your address is 15 minutes of remarks followed by 10 minutes of questions and answers. You will be followed by Director for Global Issues [redacted] who will speak for approximately 30 minutes on terrorism. When offered a choice of substantive issues, the group chose this topic. (See complete agenda opposite.)

STAT

* Speech: Your proposed remarks are attached. Some new material on recent events in India are included. Since the group will probably have questions on this topic, unclassified talking points are also attached. If you have further revisions and wish a final, cleaned-up copy, please let us know.

* Audience: Approximately 160 members of the Fordham University Club will be present. Attached is a list of attendees as well as a list of Club members who are employees at the Agency and are acting as hosts for this evening. (The invitation which includes the letterhead and list of Board of Directors is opposite.) Although there appears to be one journalist and one author in the group, I will make it very clear that your remarks are to be off-the-record.
